

Rights Resource Network SA

connecting change creators + law makers

rightsnetworksa.com
rightsnetworksa@gmail.com

Paid Research Assistant: Job No 1/2021

About Us

The Rights Resource Network SA is a volunteer-run network designed to share information and research among academics, community organisations and individuals who share an interest in protecting the human rights of South Australians. It is not an incorporated organisation and it does not have a formal, hierarchical decision-making process. This is a paid research position. To find out more about volunteering with us please visit rightsnetworksa.com.

About this Research Opportunity

Support for International Human Rights Day Expert Workshop on A Human Rights Framework for SA

Total hours (rate approx $45 per hour depending on expertise)

70 Hours – Commence mid Nov 2021 end mid Dec 2021 – flexible work arrangements

Completion Date

Complete by 15 November 2021

Key Contact person

Dr Sarah Moulds, sarah.moulds@unisa.edu.au or 0401132544

Skills required

Legal research skills eg finding and summarising human rights legislation in other Australian jurisdictions
Written communications skills eg drafting a comparative table and briefing Note

Key tasks

Identify past attempts at introducing human rights standards into South Australian legislation and/or parliamentary procedure
Identify any human rights aspects of the work of existing Statutory Office holders or Commissioners in South Australia
Assist in the completion of a comparative table of Human Rights Frameworks in other Australian jurisdictions (eg ACT, Vic, Qld)
Attend Expert Workshop on 10 December 2021.
Assist in the compilation of an Expert Workshop Report (with assistance of volunteer rapporteurs)

Key outputs

Help develop an issues paper to circulate ahead of the workshop and to help compile a report following the Workshop - with a view to converting into an academic publication as well as a co-authored submission to the Select Committee of the SA Parliament and a set of accessible materials for community and professional partners to use.

Meetings required?

Yes – 15 minutes online once a week

Where to go for help or more info

Dr Sarah Moulds, sarah.moulds@unisa.edu.au or 0401132544

Tips for how to describe this in your CV

In this position I worked independently to provide high quality tailored legal information and research that contributed directly to an expert Workshop designed to develop a Human Rights Framework for south Australia.. .